NOMINATION ENTRY FORM

NEW FOR 2022

Aviation 100 Aviation Finance & Leasing Technology Award 2022

This is a new award category open for nominations from companies that have launched data technology platforms/systems specifically for the aviation finance & leasing industry during 2021.

The past year has seen the development of a wealth of new systems to aid the aviation industry, whether is counting carbon emissions, or tracking asset values or restructuring processes. With this in mind, we would like you to nominate the company and system, launched in 2021, which you believe is worthy of recognition for an Airline Economics Aviation 100 Awards for 2022.

Please submit one nomination for your product using the form below (if you are submitting multiple products for consideration, please use a separate form for each) and return it to Victoria Tozer-Pennington victoria@airlineeconomics.com with the subject line: AE Aviation 100 Tech Award 2022 by 5th December 2021.
